Dated at New Dehli, this 7th day of December, 1962.

[No. F. 2(32)-FC. II/62.]

By order and in the name of the President,

K. S. SUNDARA RAJAN, Jt. Secy.

(Department of Revenue)

CENTRAL EXCISES

New Delhi, the 15th December 1962

G.S.R. 1693.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (I of 1944) as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Central Excise Rules, 1944, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Central Excise (Twentyfirst Amendment) Rules, 1962.

2. In the Central Excise Rules, 1944,

(1) in rule 96Y, after sub-rule (3), the following sub-rule shall be inserted at the end, namely—

“(4) If the manufacturer desires to avail himself of the special provisions contained in this section on the expiry of the period for which his application was granted, he shall before such expiry make an application to the Collector under sub-rule (1); and on his failure to do so, he shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Collector, be precluded from availing himself of such provisions for a period of six months from the date of such expiry.”;

(2) in rule 96YY, for sub-rule (2), the following shall be substituted, namely—

“(2) Such sum shall be tendered by such manufacturers along with such application.”

(3) after rule 96YYY, the following rules shall be inserted, namely—

96 Z. Manufacturer's declaration, accounts and returns.

(1) Such manufacturer shall, at any time, during the calendar month immediately preceding any month in respect of which he has been permitted to avail himself of the provisions of this section, make an application to the proper officer in the proper form for leave to remove battery plates from his licensed premises during the latter month, declaring therein the names of the workers employed and the nature of work performed.

(2) If such application is not made to the proper officer within the time-limit laid down in sub-rule (1), the manufacturer shall, unless otherwise directed by the Collector, and in exceptional circumstances, be liable to pay duty on his entire production of battery plates during the month in respect of which the application was to be made, at the full rate prescribed in the First Schedule to the Act.

(3) Such manufacturer shall also—

- (a) maintain a Muster Roll in respect of the workers employed in his premises;
- (b) maintain a true account of battery plates produced and cleared in a simple form;
- (c) append to his monthly statement in R.T. 3 made under rule 54, a duly signed statement showing the No. of workers employed by him during the month for which the return relates.

96 ZZ. Exemption from certain provisions.

During the period in respect of which any manufacturer has been permitted to avail himself of the provisions of this section, he shall be exempt from the operation of all the provisions of rule 9 [except the second proviso to sub-rule (1) thereof], 47, 49, 50, 51, 51A, 52, 52A, 53, 55, 223, 223A, 224, 224A and 229.

86ZZZ. Penalty for misdeclaration.

A manufacturer who is found to have made an incorrect declaration under sub-rule (1) of rule 96Z or to have incorrectly maintained the account prescribed in sub-rule 3(b) of that rule, or to have committed a breach of any of the conditions specified in a notification issued under rule 96YY shall be liable—

- (i) to pay the difference, if any, between the sum actually tendered by him, and the sum properly payable, within seven days of a demand for such difference being served upon him by the proper officer;
- (ii) to confiscation of part or the whole of the stock of battery plates lying in the premises of his licensed factory at the time the incorrectness of the declaration or of the accounts is discovered;
- (iii) to be debarred from availing of the special procedure prescribed in the Chapter for a period of six months; and
- (iv) to a penalty not exceeding two thousand rupees.

96ZZZZ. Power to condone failure to apply for special procedure.

"Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the Collector may, at his discretion, and subject to such conditions as he may lay down, apply the provisions contained in this section to a manufacturer who has failed to avail himself of the special procedure, or to comply with any condition, laid down in this section within the prescribed time limit."

CENTRAL EXCISES:New Delhi, the 15th December, 1962.

G.S.R. 1694.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rules 12 and 12-A, of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, the Central Government is pleased to direct that, with effect from the 17th November, 1962, rebate of the duty paid on the excisable goods specified in the Table annexed hereto, shall, on their exportation out of India, to the destinations mentioned in column 3 thereof, be made to the extent and subject to the conditions and limitations, if any, set out in the corresponding entries in columns 4 and 5:

Provided that—

- (i) except as otherwise provided in the said Table or permitted by the Central Board of Revenue by general or special order, the goods are exported after payment of duty in cash direct from a factory or a warehouse;

- (ii) the goods are exported not more than two years after the date of payment of duty, or within such shorter period as the Central Government may prescribe for any specified excisable goods;
- (iii) the amount of duty paid on the goods to be exported, and the date of payment thereof are established, from Central Excise records, to the satisfaction of the Collector;
- (iv) the procedure set out in the relevant provisions of Chapter IX of the aforesaid rules is followed;
- (v) the goods are exported within four months, and the claim for rebate, together with the proof of due exportation, is lodged with the proper officer within five months, from the date on which the goods were first cleared for export from the producing factory or within such extended period, in either respect, as the Collector may in any particular case allow;
- (vi) the amount of rebate admissible is not less than five rupees;
- (vii) the value of the goods at the time of exportation is, in the opinion of the Collector, not less than the amount of rebate claimed;
- (viii) if exported by land, the export shall take place by such routes as the Collector may prescribe in respect of any specified country;
- (ix) if exported by river, the export shall take place in boats of such burden as the Collector may prescribe in respect of any specified country; and
- (x) if exported by Parcel Post, the parcel is delivered by the exporter at the Post office of despatch within six months of the payment of duty.
